Rise Preparatory Charter School Names Shanda Beadles as Principal of Prep Division (Grades 6-8)

East Point, Georgia – [Date] – Rise Preparatory Charter Schools (The Rise Schools) is delighted to announce the appointment of Shanda Beadles as the new Principal of the Rise Schools Prep Division, overseeing grades 6 through 8. With her extensive experience and dedication to education, Beadles is well-equipped to lead and inspire the students and faculty of this division. She assumes her role immediately.

Shanda Beadles brings an impressive 28-year tenure as an educator in Atlanta Public Schools, making her a highly respected veteran in the field. Her educational journey began as a substitute teacher and has since flourished, encompassing various roles and responsibilities. Throughout her career, Beadles has served as a high school and middle school science teacher, department chair, grade level lead, instructional coach, assistant principal, district level curriculum design specialist, School Business Manager (COO), and principal.

Educated at Hampton University in Virginia, Beadles earned her Bachelor's degree in biology. She furthered her academic pursuits by obtaining a Master's and Specialist degree in Educational Leadership from Troy State University. Her dedication to ongoing learning led her to pursue doctoral studies in Educational Leadership at Liberty University.

A native of Atlanta, Beadles is committed to providing a safe, transparent, nurturing, and technologically advanced learning experience for all students. Her primary focus is to continuously build upon the current educational foundation by integrating global exposure, relevant experiences, investigative discovery, and real-world engagement opportunities that prepare students for future success in a global landscape. She firmly believes in bridging the educational gap between home and school by involving parents in the development of each student's learning experience and cognitive growth, creating a supportive environment that feels like a home away from home.

The Rise Schools community is excited to welcome Shanda Beadles as the Principal of the Rise Schools Prep Division. With her exceptional leadership abilities, wealth of experience, and commitment to student success, Beadles is poised to create a transformative and empowering educational environment for students in grades 6 through 8.
